SECTION 8

PROSECUTION AND PROGRESS

7-1.02M Public Resources Code

7-1.02M(1) General

Reserved

7-1.02M(2) Fire Protection

Submit the names and emergency telephone numbers of the nearest fire suppression agencies before the start of job site activities as an informational submittal. Post the names and phone numbers at a prominent place at the job site.

Submit a copy of your fire prevention plan required by Cal/OSHA as an informational submittal before the start of job site activities.

Cooperate with fire prevention authorities in performance of the work.

Immediately report fires occurring within and near the project limits by dialing 911 and to the nearest fire suppression agency by using the emergency phone numbers retained at the job site.

Prevent project personnel from setting open fires that are not part of the work.

Prevent the escape of and extinguish fires caused directly or indirectly by job site activities.

7-1.02M(3) Surface Mining and Reclamation Act

Imported borrow or aggregate material must come from a surface mine permitted under the Surface Mining and Reclamation Act of 1975, Pub Res Code § 2710 et seq., or from a source not subject to this act.

For the list of permitted sites, go to the Department of Conservation, Division of Mine Reclamation website.

If you import borrow or aggregate material from a surface mine not on this list, submit proof that the source is not subject to this act.

7-1.02N Reserved

7-1.02O Vehicle Code

Under Veh Code § 591, the Agency determines areas within the project limits are open to public traffic. For those areas, comply with the requirements set forth in Divisions 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15 of the Veh Code.

Veh Code § 591 does not relieve you or any other person from the duty of exercising due care.

7-1.02P–7-1.02Z Reserved

7-1.03 PUBLIC CONVENIENCE

Compliance with section 7-1.03 does not relieve you of your responsibility for public safety.

Construction activities must not interfere or obstruct emergency services at all times.

Construction activities must not limit inconvenience to the public or and abutting property owners, businesses, churches, and schools. Schedule and conduct work to avoid unnecessary inconvenience to the public and abutting property owners, businesses, and schools. Avoid undue delay in construction activities to reduce the public's exposure to construction.

Work cooperatively with administrators of local schools to schedule work in a manner that avoids conflict with school operations and events, and especially access and testing.
